

Check List for “All About Me” Video

All answers to the questions below should be Yes. If so, you’re ready to hand in your video.
If you answered No to any below, take care of them and fix them.

- Yes No Did you use iMovie to edit your “All About Me” project?
- Yes No Did you scan and use at least 5 photos in your video?
- Yes No Do you add at least 20 total images/pictures/stills/scans in your video?
- Yes No Did you use the Ken Burns effect on the images/pictures/stills in your video?
- Yes No Are the images/pictures/stills/Flip video clip All About You?
- Yes No Did you make a title for your project?
- Yes No Did you add a clean (PG) music track from home, GarageBand, or Digital Juice?
- Yes No Did you adjust the audio levels so no audio is in the yellow or red danger zone?
- Yes No Did you fade in/fade out your music and/or first/last images/pictures/stills/video?
- Yes No Did you create a Flip camera video?
- Yes No Did you import, edit, and insert the Flip video in your project?
- Yes No Is your Flip video a maximum of 30 seconds or less?
- Yes No Did you add a credit slide?
- Yes No Did you double check to be sure every word is spelled correctly?
- Yes No Is your “All About Me” video 1 to 3 minutes long?
- Yes No Did you watch it and think it is awesome and that my classmates, Mr. Farrara, and family will like it? Then read below...

If you answered Yes to all the above questions, follow the steps on the www.farrara.com to export it and submit your “All About Me” video in the Drop Box. I’m excited, and I’m sure your classmates are excited, to watch your “All About Me” video.